Winner of "Gone To The Dogs" Exhibit and Competition

The winner of Gone to the Dogs dog portrait competition was 'Fritz' with 246 votes. Sadly, 'Fritz' crossed the rainbow bridge last Saturday. All of us who have lost a pet know the emptiness and pain that accompanies the loss of a canine friend. His mom told me that the portrait gives her comfort now so I am happy she won it.

Multi-Artisan Holiday Open House

Santora Fine Art is host a Multi-Artisan Holiday Open House on Saturday, November 19, from 10 AM to 5 PM. Mark your calendars! I have invited 3 other artisans here for this event. My artist friend, Claudia Hopf, is also having her annual Holiday Open House (same day-same time), 3 doors down from me on the corner of Mechanic St, with 5 artisans participating. It will be a fun event!

I will be introducing a new collection of seascape miniatures, and will have my portfolio of 8 limited edition giclee reproductions, available framed and unframed, plus my horse and cow art catalogs. The other artisan studios represented in this event are Kennebunkport Designs, Sundancer Stained Glass & Steele Rose Designs.

Barbara Hill of Kennebunkport Designs has a custom-designed line of handmade purses, totes, wristlets and change purses. Deb Plourde of Sundancer Stained Glass, Saco, creates stained glass wall hangings, lamps, door and window panels, plus a unique collection of hot glass creations including earrings, pendants, necklaces and bracelets.

Lorraine Harvie of Steele Rose Designs, Scarborough, creates hand-forged sterling silver jewelry with beach stones and Swarovski crystal beads, and has a line of Precious Metal Clay silver jewelry.

Marybeth Munroe of Roly's English Fudge will also be here with her treats! Light refreshments will be served. FMI call Carol at 207-985-2830.
