Update "Gone To The Dogs" Exhibit and Competition of Dog Portraits

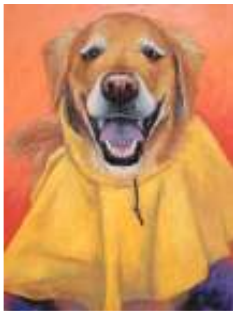

Nineteen beloved canines will be honored at the Wright Gallery in Cape Porpoise, in this new exhibit and competition of dog portraits by gallery artist Carol Santora. Of the 35 dogs submitted, 18 were drawn at random and painted, along with Santora's latest rescue, Biscuit, a 4-year-old golden retriever.

Visitors to the show will be able to vote for their favorite dog portrait. The People's Choice painting – the painting with the most votes - will be awarded to the owners by Santora.

Canines hailed from across the US, including California, Colorado, Mississippi, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, Indiana, Michigan, Pennsylvania, the New England states, and Ontario, Canada.

The public is invited to the opening reception at the Wright Gallery starting at 4PM, Saturday September 24. The show runs through October 2. The Gallery is located at 5 Pier Rd and open daily from 10 AM to 5 PM. For more information contact the gallery at 207-967-5053.

You may also visit Santora's website www.carolsantora.com to see the paintings and vote for your favorite if you are unable to make it to the show. Voting information is on page 2 of this newsletter!
