"Gone To The Dogs" An Exhibit and Competition of Dog Portraits

The Wright Gallery invites its patrons and the public to participate in a special show and competition "Gone to the Dogs". Starting in May, gallery artist Carol Santora will begin painting portraits of randomly selected dogs from photos sent from across the country.

The finished paintings will be displayed and voted on during the special 2 week gallery show at the Wright Gallery. Anyone can enter and the people's choice winner - the painting with the most votes - will be awarded to their proud owner!

For your dog to be considered as an entry please send your favorite "best view" photo to info@carolsantora.com with the subject line "Gone to the Dogs". Entries must be received no later than June 1st. There is no charge to enter. We announced the contest 3 days ago and already have almost a dozen entries! The competition paintings will also be displayed on The Wright Gallery website, the Santora Fine Art website & on Facebook where anyone can join the voting by "liking" their favorite. Links and details in the next newsletter!

All paintings will be for sale but cannot be shipped until after the show. Carol is available to do commissions in any size or pose you wish - those can be shipped any time. Please inquire: info@thewrightgallery.com.

'Nonantum to Display Artist's Work'

Over the winter, the Nonantum Resort invited me and my 'Destination Galleries' artist partner Mimi Gregoire Carpenter to each create a giclee reproduction especially for the renovation of their Portside rooms. My special limited edition giclee reproduction 'Burning Off' adorns 20 rooms. In addition, another boatscape 'No Skippers' hangs in 4 other rooms and 'Happy Tails' reproduction hangs in their 2 new dog friendly accommodations. 'Burning Off' and 'No Skippers' are also on display in the River Room. These reproductions are available for sale at the Resort.
