SUMMER 2010

'Ewe Who' Chosen for 10x10 Art Show Publicity

On July 22, I was notified that on behalf of the Brunswick 10 x10 committee that my pastel image "Ewe Who" was selected for their poster and postcard for this year's 10x10 Benefit Art Show on October 1, 2010.

Art will hang in two gallery spaces in Brunswick: the Morrell Meeting Room at Curtis Memorial Library at 23 Pleasant Street and St Paul's Church Hall at 27 Pleasant Street. The public preview is 10-3, and the Opening Reception is 5-8 PM.

Another 'New' Addition to our Family!

June 2 was an exciting day... Dixie and Blue got a new brother! My hubby and I fostered-to-adopt Biscuit, a 3-year-old golden retriever. He arrived with his tail wagging! Dixie, Blue and Biscuit became fast friends... To keep up to date on their antics visit my blog: santorafineart.blogspot.com.

Annual Open House Painting Winner

The winner of the painting 'Butterscotch' at the annual open house was Elayne Star of Kennebunk. Congratulations, Elayne!

Saving Grace

In July, my husband and I went with Ever After Mustang Rescue Director, Mona Jerome and her granddaughter, Lydia, to central New Jersey for a mustang rescue. The work Mona and her volunteers do is never-ending. Mona is a phenomenal human being. It was magical watching Lydia lead Grace and her foal into their pen when we returned. I was honored to be part of the beginning of Grace & Lexie's new life, & to capture some of it with my camera. It was awesome. To see photos visit my blog...

Other Notes...

I met my very good friend, artist, and master weaver from Colorado, Pat Jeffers, in New Mexico in late April. We rented casitas on a 'farm' outside of Santa Fe proper, and were very inspired by the landscape and art in Taos and Santa Fe. This summer I've been out and about collecting all sorts of reference material. I had a private visit with the belties at Bassett Farm (and met Domaine the bull), not to mention my weekly visits to the mustang rescue and 'Saving Grace.' Sunday, July 25, was the annual Open Farm Day in Maine, and my hubby and I visited and had great fun at Tylerfarm in Limington. They are a great family and have a wonderful facility with Belgian draft horses, Icelandic sheep, Pygora goats, cows and a donkey!
