WINTER 2011

'Horses of a Different Color' Catalog

I am excited to announce the publication of my second fine art catalog: Horses of a Different Color. Illustrated with 35 pastel horse paintings, the full color soft cover catalog measures 7"x7" and is printed in the USA on premium luster finish paper. The Color of Cows is in its 3rd printing and personalized copies are available at Santora Fine Art and through my website with PayPal along with Horses of a Different Color. Call and stop by the gallery or email me for your personalized copies of both books!

Giclee Reproductions Available on Website

My limited edition giclee reproductions are now available on my website with PayPal. My collection of 6 giclees has been reproduced on fine art rag paper with a clear coating that provides protection from smudging, fingerprints, and water droplets. They are available exclusively from my website, unframed, and at Santora Fine Art either matted or framed. 'Happy Tails' and 'Trusted Friends' reproductions have a portion of their proceeds donated to the AWS and the Ever After Mustang Rescue.

The Ultimate 5000 Race for Hay

The horses at Ever After Mustang Rescue, Biddeford, are competing in a month-long race to pay for much needed hay to last the rest of the winter. You can help by joining in on the Ultimate 5000 Race for Hay! Contest runs February 1, 2011 - March 3, 2011. The winning horse will be announced March 4, 2011. Click here to see the race: <http://www.mustangrescue.org/ultimate-race.html> and visit the website to participate, select a horse, and make a $5 donation to move your horse forward one length. Approaching the halfway point, Cherokee takes the lead by 1 length, Cooper is 2nd, and Last Chance is right on his tail. 15 horses (including 'my' Reno-Blue) are close behind and it's still any equine's race! Little Chalupa made it out of the gate and is Heehawing his way down the backstretch. Let's keep those horses moving!
